1. On 11 May 1953, the Trost Kaserne, Albrechts Kaserne and Wilhelms Kaserne in Vienna, the former Bundeserziehungsanstalt in Traiskirchen (O 49/X 37), the Pionier Kaserne in Klosterneuburg (O 49/S 30), and the barracks installation including the AAA section in Kagran (P 49/X 49) were vacant except for guards. 1
2. On 6 May, trucks at the Birago Kaserne in Melk (O 49/W 68) were loaded with billeting equipment and 80 x 30 x 50 centimeter ammunition boxes. The vehicles drove to the railroad station, where a unit also from the Birago Kaserne was detrained. The troop train included 5 boxcars with officers and EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery, motor transport and signal insignia, 3 boxcars with ammunition, and 25 flatcars carrying 12 x 122-mm field howitzers, 18 trucks, 2 jeeps and 2 field kitchens. The troop train was headed toward St. Poelten (O 49/W 88) and, according to a railroad official, bound for Goepritz

3. On 8 May, 3 sedans and 2 jeeps, [REDACTED] driven by soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets, were observed at the main gate of the former Kreisgericht on Schiesststrasse in St. Poelten. Truck [REDACTED] was seen at the garages west of the former Kreisgericht; and truck [REDACTED] at the officers' club in the former Stadtsaele. No vehicle traffic was observed at the barrier at the Franz Josef Kaserne guarded by a sentry with black-bordered black epaulets. Six soldiers with black-bordered black epaulets were seen at the Eugen Kaserne. Four motor vehicles were parked at the Rainer Kaserne; and the long-wire antenna, but without a radio truck, was observed at the Franz Josef Kaserne. The little vehicular traffic and little activities at the installations indicated that at least some of the troops had left for field training. 3
